

Kinga Stanislawska is a Managing Partner and Founder of Experior Venture Fund, a private equity / venture capital fund in Poland. She is responsible for all the Fund's operations, including deal sourcing, value creation, supervision, exit strategy from investments, obtaining debt financing for portfolio companies as well as for relations with investors, the National Capital Fund and limited partners. Kinga is also Managing Partner of advisory boutique, Experior.

Kinga has been working in banking and finance for the past 16 years. Her experience encompasses investment banking (M&A, capital raising in the form of private and public equity, all forms of financing) as well as direct equity investments (private equity and mezzanine).

Prior to EVF, she was the Global Head of TMT at Raiffeisen Investment in Vienna from 2007 to 2009. She started her career in banking at Salomon Smith Barney (Citigroup, London) and followed on to become Manager in Equity Capital Markets team of ING Barings, with responsibility for the EMEA region. In 2001-2007 she was a Principal Banker at European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (London and Warsaw), where she led investment and financing projects in the TMT and infrastructure sectors across the CEE and CIS regions. Kinga was responsible for supervising selected investments of EBRD's equity portfolio.

Education

BSc (Hons) Graduate from University of Manchester (UMIST), UK.

Grande Ecole Diploma Graduate from Institut d'Etudes Commerciales Superieures in Strasbourg, France.

LLM Graduate from Warsaw University, faculty of Law and Administration.
The General Manager Programme Graduate at Harvard Business School.

Languages

Polish, English, French